

Mobile Classroom Construction Skills Tutor

This is a unique opportunity to make a difference to students seeking vocational skills. Working within the charitable sector you will have the opportunity to teach BTEC Level 1 Construction or a SATRO Construction Skills Course to students aged 14 – 19 in school.

Assistant Head Teacher, Altwood School 2021 “A wonderful opportunity to students to engage in a meaningful programme that develops students both socially and academically. The SATRO construction course offers students real currency and enables them to succeed practically, setting them up as desirable candidates to progress onto college courses and apprenticeships. This is what vocational education should be!”

SATRO Construction Students 2022

- “we get to experience things not on the curriculum”
- “Not focussed on academic ability”
- “Can lead to an apprenticeship or job”
- “Motivates me to come to school because it’s my favourite subject”
- “Like working in a small group”
- “Like being trusted to use tools”

Parent of Student 2020

“We’re really pleased that Kieron was chosen for this apprenticeship though his own merit. it was his talking about the SATRO construction course that so impressed them and really put him ahead of the other candidates.....I could not be prouder – thank you for giving him this experience.”

You will join a committed team of 6 tutors with support from the SATRO office for the BTEC qualification and Programme Coordination. You will be provided with a van with all the tools and materials needed to teach the course and will attend schools across your area for 2-hour weekly sessions per school, across an academic year. We currently teach over 430 students a year from a range of units covering joinery, plumbing, bricklaying, electrics, careers pathways and employability skills in mainstream, alternative provision, pupil referral units and special needs schools.

Salary: £28-34,000 dependent on experience

Hours: Term-time (plus 2 weeks) Full or Part-Time

Location: SATRO is based in Surrey works across Berkshire, Hampshire, Sussex, Oxfordshire and West London Boroughs.

Purpose of the Job:

SATRO are an educational charity running a fleet of seven mobile classrooms, teaching construction skills to young people aged 14-16 (and older in some cases) in schools across Surrey, Hampshire, Berkshire, Sussex, Oxfordshire and West London Boroughs.

We are looking for an enthusiastic and personable individual who has a passion to inspire and enthuse young people to reach their full potential. We want someone who believes every young person has the potential to achieve and exceed their expectations. This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced individual who has worked in the construction industry, to teach a recognised qualification and key skills to differing groups of students and young people, including those with special needs. An ability to accommodate differential learning is essential.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- To work with learners giving practical instruction and sharing unique vocational experiences in construction skills.
- Ensure that the learners have an effective and enjoyable learning experience by providing high quality information, guidance and advice.
- Plan, review and deliver practical quality sessions giving comprehensive instructions to learners.
- Prepare lesson plans for each course unit and be responsible for updating course material as and when required to meet the needs of the students.
- Complete all portfolio paperwork in line with SATRO and BTEC policies and standards. Assess learners work and cross reference against these standards giving detailed verbal and written feedback.
- Monitor and record student attendance and progress.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Attend training and maintain CPD in both construction and education.
- Work flexibly across locations in Surrey, Hampshire, Berkshire, Sussex, Oxfordshire and West London.
- Undertake any other responsibilities and ad hoc duties as required by SATRO
- Promote the principles of Equality and Diversity and ensure that the policy is fully applied at all times
- Understand and adhere to all personal responsibilities under Health & Safety and Safeguarding procedures, and ensure that the policies are adhered to at all times
- Strictly adhere to all SATRO policies, processes and procedures and work to the values, vision and priorities of the Charity.

SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED:Essential

- A solid background and experience of working within the construction industry
- Experience in education or training with young people
- Ability to deal effectively with and communicate to people at all levels.
- Able to work unsupervised and manage work to meet targets and deadlines.
- A full clean driving license is essential for this role.
- Candidates will be required to complete an enhanced DBS check.

Desirable

- Teaching qualification or equivalent (we will support those without to gain a PTLLS qualification)
- Good organisation and administrative skills
- Experience of working with an educational or training qualification

Prior to making an application we offer the opportunity for you to join one of our tutors at a session near you to gain an insight into the work involved in being a SATRO Construction tutor.

To apply for this vacancy, please forward your CV with a covering letter outlining your experience and suitability for the role to: anne.edward@satro.org.uk